

24
MAR

Trag Foundation Awards VIRTUS Prize

For the 11th year in a row, the Trag foundation has awarded the VIRTUS prize for philanthropy to large companies, SMEs and individuals.

The winners of the award received their prizes from H.E. Kyle Scott, US ambassador to Serbia, H.E. Julia Finney, Australian ambassador to Serbia, H.E. Arne Sannes Bjørnstad, Norwegian ambassador to Serbia and Mateja Norčič Stamčar, Deputy Head of the Delegation of the European Union to Serbia.

The winner of the main prize for national contributions was the company Delta Holding. For contributions to the local community in which the company works, the award went to Rudnik i flotacija Rudnik d.o.o., and the prize for long-term partnership between the private and non-profit sectors was awarded to Nelt Co d.o.o. Nag d.o.o. won the award in the SME category while the award for individuals went to Milorad Jurković – Carpenter Mile, a philanthropist from Beočin.

